1957-58 Prospects.....

Kalamazoo has six lettermen on hand to start the 1957-58 basketball campaign -- that's two more than answered the first call a year ago, but nevertheless the prospects are not as bright as they were at that time.

Only three lettermen graduated in the spring of 1957, but the trip included Gary Morrison, high scorer for the Hornets in each of the last three seasons, Doug Steward, the 6'7" center, and Bruce Springsteen, who saw considerable action as a guard. The lettermen returning include the following:

Bob Fletcher, guard -- Bob scored 236 points a year ago, a total which placed him second to Morrison in scoring. He lettered both as a freshman and as a sophomore a year ago.

Walt Maser, center -- Walt played forward most of last season, but will probably be at center this year; he's the tallest letterman at 6'5".

Casey Clark, forward -- Casey saw only limited action in the first half of the season a year ago, but his great improvement won a spot as a regular late in the year.

Bob Brice, forward -- Bob was used as a spot substitute a year ago, and totalled 60 points for the year. He could win a regular starting position this season.

John Thompson, guard -- Thompson and Fletcher will give the Hornets a good pair of agile guards this season; Thompson has an excellent shooting eye and led the Hornets in free throw percentages last season (he connected on 41 of 51 attempts).

Bob Ellis, forward -- Bob was a regular during the first half of the season, but was ineligible during the second semester. He has regained his eligibility now, and should be of great value as a scorer.

With Steward having graduated, Kalamazoo is lacking a really big man to compete with such MIAA aces as 6'10" Paul Benes of Hope and 6' 9" Tom Newhof of Calvin. Maser at 6'5" is the tallest player with experience; actually, the tallest candidate is Ron Suydam, a freshman from St. Augustine, at 6'6", but Ron, along with four other 6'5" candidates, is new to collegiate basketball. One of the 6'5" freshmen is Roger Kramer, a topnotch prospect.

In addition to the six lettermen, three other 1956-57 squad members return -- Atis Grinbergs, Don Steffen, and Jim Brand. Of these three, only Grinbergs saw varsity action, as both Steffen and Brand played reserve basketball. Grinbergs showed great promise as a rebounder.

This year's schedule is again highlighted by the annual Kalamazoo Invitational Tournament, to be held at Tredway Gymnasium on Dec. 30-31. Albion, Kalamazoo and Manchester return from a year ago, with Hiram replacing Elmhurst as the fourth team. Kalamazoo won the title a year ago by downing Albion, 67-66, in the finals.

COACH RAY STEFFEN

Kalamazoo has posted two straight winning seasons and a total of 27 wins and 16 losses under Coach Ray Steffen. Two years ago, the Hornets posted a 14-9 record as Steffen made his collegiate coaching debut; that 1955-56 team tied Adrian for second place in the MIAA standings, and represented Michigan in the NAIA tourney at Kansas City. Last year, Kalamazoo just missed sharing the title and wound up in a third-place tie with this same Adrian team.

Steffen graduated from Michigan State in 1951 after a brilliant cage career there and at Flint Central High School. He spent four years coaching at Buchanan High School before coming to Kalamazoo, developing the Bucks from a second-rate team to a state championship contender. His 1955 Buchanan outfit lost in the state class B finals to River Rouge, 51-48.
