What's the most important ingredient in our cookies? Without a doubt, it is YOU!

YOU are the reason we use real chocolate, pure cane sugar and California raisins. And YOU are the reason we bake our cookies fresh all day, every day.

Since you're so important to all of us at The Original Cookie Company, we would like to hear from you. If you have any ideas about how we can better serve you, please let us know. After all, YOU are the main ingredient in our success and WE are not about to forget it.

And soar . . . . .

Love,
Mom and Dad

Jamie,

People sometimes find themselves apart, but the special feeling of togetherness that keeps them close never goes away.

It seems we seldom take the time to say how much we care. So many times the heart is full of memories that we treasure, but we just don't take the time we should to express what's in our hearts.

We're sure you know the many times our love has overflowed, but oftentimes it goes unsaid how much we really care. We're taking this chance to let you know we love you.

We are filled with heartfelt thanks for all you've done.

We respect the person you are.
We respect the things you've done and the efforts you've made.

Jamie, you have our respect and most of all our love.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!!!
