An Epic Poem of Congratulations Upon the Occurrence of the Graduation of Ms. Beth Ann Easter

This little poem was written just for you, to commemorate your graduation from Kalamazoo.
To celebrate all that liberal arts knowledge that got put into your head while you were in college.

The papers are written and the books are all read,
You no longer have to look forward to Monday with dread,
Your senior individualized project is finally done,
Now you can spend the rest of your life just having fun.

For one whole year you spent your days,
Learning about the Spanish, (especially La Marcha), in Mexico.
For a while you studied in Washington, D.C.,
(Where you interned for a congressman, but not the President, thankfully.)

You also clerked in a federal district court where you get to decide cases, mostly for sport,
You were a good little Republican when we sent you away,
But thanks to liberal arts education, you’re a dyed-in-the-wool feminist today.

Your brother is still a junior at Kalamazoo
To your mother and I will still have something to do.
But you’re off to Emory Law School for a well deserved three year rest.
With Love, Your father, mother, your 2 brothers and all the rest.
