In memory of Joelluin Masters

December 5, 1968 - May 10, 1996

Can you go back in time to a place in your mind, to the one who knew a part of you that you just couldn’t find. If you ask me to choose between a memory or two, when it’s said and done I’ll choose the one who’s love I had to lose. When she danced I lost my innocence. I loved her then. I always will. She left with me a burning memory. She took with her a part of me.

amnesty international

Amnesty’s emblem is a candle in the wind wrapped in barbed wire, the wire encircling, the candle flame bent but not blown out; maintaining itself.

One doesn’t end torture, it is brought to and end. Slowly and with enormous effort, friction, energy, like a locomotive brought to a standstill. For we are dealing with momentum here. There are moments when it seems futile and yet, as the old freedom song reminds us, “one and one make a million,” suggesting an effort of vast numbers, worldwide, something that large. A collective will.

--Kate Millet, The Politics of Cruelty

The 1995-1996 Boiling Pot is quite different from other yearbooks you may have seen. It is my belief that people do not buy yearbooks to hear what editors have to say. Students and faculty members purchase yearbooks to have collections of pictures of the people and events which meant the most to them. With that in mind I offer you “Images” the 1995-1996 yearbook of Kalamazoo College. “Images” contains few words, instead it is focused upon the students here at “K”. These pictures should not need an editor’s explanation, you will remember these people without my words.

Most of the photographs pictured in this book were taken by Peter Preuss, Rebecca Klinepeter or the students who submitted them.

“Images” layout, sales and advertisement were also completed by editor Rebecca Klinepeter.

Special thanks to:

Pam Beitzel of Herff Jones Publishing, without your many hours of help and constant support this book never would have been completed.

Barb Vogelsang, thank you for always having an open door and answers.

Aileen Wagner, Celia Marsh, Union Desk workers and Karen Sullivan for offering help when ever able.

Tina Cox, Christina Gasko, Jason Burgess, Karen Carpenter, Garry Otsuji, Aileen Wagner, Jessica Walsh, Pat, Di Suess-Brakeman, Dan Dienesch and Anne Dibble for stuffing envelopes while I slept, believing in me and offering me the support I needed to complete this book!
