Call to Worship

Pete Myers

Leader: I cry aloud to God, aloud to God that I may be heard.

PEOPLE: In the day of trouble I seek God; in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying; my soul refuses to be comforted.

Leader: I consider the days of old, I remember the years long ago.

PEOPLE: I commune with my heart in the night; I mediate and search my spirit: "Will God spurn forever, and never again be favorable? Has God's steadfast love forever ceased? Are God's promises at an end for all time?"

Leader: I will call to mind the deeds of God; yea, I will remember your wonders of old.

PEOPLE: I will mediate on all your work, and muse on your mighty deeds.

Leader: Your way, O God, is holy. What god is great like our God?

PEOPLE: You are the God who works wonders, who has manifested your might among the peoples.

Leader: When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid, yea, the deep trembled.

PEOPLE: The clouds poured out water; the skies gave forth thunder; your arrows flashed on every side.

Leader: The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.

PEOPLE: Your way was through the sea, your path through the great waters; yet your footprints were unseen.

Leader: You led your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses, Miriam and Aaron.
