Recessional Hymn—Number 1
Postlude—"March of the Priests"
Mendelssohn
Dedicatory Hymn by Miss Agnes B. Powell, 1900
(Tune 245)

Thou hast no need of temples, Lord
To fix Thy dwelling-place,
Who art in earth and sky and sea,
Through all the realms of space

But reverently we dedicate
This house to worship Thee,
Where thou canst still our restless minds,
From burdens set us free.

For we may hallow by our prayers
The house our hands have wrought;
And sacred memories linger where
Thy presence oft is sought.

To all who daily here shall bow
Thy richest blessings send;
Thy comfort, Lord, and strength, impart,
Thy gracious favor lend.
