

Sustainability SIP Symposium

Tuesday, April 22, 6-9pm
1st Floor Dewing Hall, Kalamazoo College

- Welcome.....Mickey McDonald
Provost, Kalamazoo College
- Introduction of Students.....Binney Girdler
Professor of Biology, Kalamazoo College
- Student Presentations..... Megan Davis
The Influence of Invasive Centaurea stoebe on Cirsium pitcheri and Tanacetum huronense
Doraine Duncan
The Environment versus Development Debate: A Jamaican case study with Jamaica Environment Trust
Stesha Marcon
Green Care Farming on the Health Focused Campus: A Model for Holistic Health in our Communities
Colin Lauderdale
New Growth, New Power: Toward the Next Appalachian Forest Economy
- Closing Remarks.....Ahmed Hussen
Professor of Economics, Kalamazoo College
- Student Poster Session Participants.....Charlotte Steele
Food Purchasing Attitudes and Practices in a Low-income, Multi-racial Neighborhood
Caitlyn Smith
Guilt
Kari Paine
The Health Behind Higher Prices: An Analysis of Produce Pricing Dynamics in Kalamazoo
Reid Wagner
Sustainable Energy Practices in Thailand and Application of Thermosyphons to High-Power Light-Emitting Diodes
Kalamazoo College Compost Interns
Divest Kalamazoo
EnvOrg
Kalamazoo College Sustainability Interns
- Catering.....Creative Dining Services

Sponsored by the Kalamazoo College Center for Career and Professional Development and the Environmental Studies Program