The Kalamazoo Alma Mater

R. F. Holden, '07

W. F. Dunbar, '24

1. O'Kalamazoo, our faith-ful friend, We of-fer thee a song.

No for-tune can sub-due

2. These dear scenes are left be-hind We'll re-vel in one sweet de-light The times of long a-go.

The watch-word is Kalamazoo.

3. When age has decked our heads with white And youth has ceased to glow, To praise the home where friendship blend And the chords of love that close-ly bind Our hearts to thee, Kalamazoo.

Each tree up-on thy fair Arcadian hill Is dear to us for aye.

O, sacred re-fuge and most hal-lowed place, Where hope and joy re-new.

With tight-ning grip and bright-ning face that speak thy love, Kalamazoo.

Gloomy storms may come, cold blasts may chill But friendship's cheer will stay.

And while our earth-ly vi-gils last, The watch-word is Kalamazoo.
