FROM THE EDITOR

Like leaves, we have fallen and flown with the memories and seasons that passed through our four years at Kalamazoo College: receiving an envelope from admission and gauging whether it was thick or thin, the 8:30a.m. classes, the hope and dread of snowpocalypses, participating in the Frelon Senior Dance with your two left feet, the students running at you with a broadsword as you walk to your biology lab... Each memory is a vivacious and colorful leaf, fertilizing our future with the groundwork not only of education, but also of passion and fondness. I hope this memory book serves as a giant leaf pile to leap in whenever you miss the quad, your friends, your adventures, your mentors, and the foundation you laid here at K.

Stay Zesty.

RELUCTANCE

Out through the fields and the woods
And over the walls I have wended;
I have climbed the hills of view
And looked at the world, and descended;
I have come by the highway home,
And lo, it is ended.

The leaves are all dead on the ground,
Save those that the oak is keeping
To ravel them one by one
And let them go scraping and creeping
Out over the crusted snow,
When others are sleeping.

And the dead leaves lie huddled and still,
No longer blown hither and thither;
The last lone aster is gone;
The flowers of the witch hazel wither;
The heart is still aching to seek,
But the feet question ‘Whither?’
Ah, when to the heart of man
Was it ever less than a treason
To go with the drift of things,
To yield with a grace to reason,
And bow and accept the end
Of a love or a season?"

Finding Home

Finding Home
in an unexpected way
making a home
day by day.

Being home
in an unencumbered sleep.
Staying at home
sweet and deep.

Leaving home
unexpectedly and then:
Searching for home
once again.
If you keep it in your heart
when you are forced to roam
I know you too will start
finding home.

Finding home
in an unfamiliar face
feeling your home
finding grace.

Keeping home
in the gestures that you know;
holding home
if you go.

Trusting home
if you travel far and wide.
Carrying home
deep inside.

Deep inside.

Oh, the Places You’ll Go!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
Any direction you choose.
You’re on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who’ll decide where to go.

You’ll get mixed up,
of course, as you already know.
You’ll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go.
So be sure when you step.
Step with care and great tact and remember that

Life’s A Great Balancing Act.

And will you succeed?
Yes! You will, indeed!
(98 and ¾ percent guaranteed.)

KID, YOU’LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

Do you believe you’re a starter or a benchwarmer?
Do you believe you’re an all-star or an also-ran?
If the answers to these questions are the latter, your play on the field will reflect it.
But when you’ve learned to shut off outside influences and believe in yourself, there’s no telling how good a player you can be.
That’s because you have the mental edge.
~ Rod Carew

The medals don’t mean anything and the glory doesn’t last. It’s all about your happiness. The rewards are going to come, but my happiness is just loving the sport and having fun performing.

There is a place where the sidewalk ends
and before the street begins,
and there the grass grows soft and white,
and there the sun burns crimson bright,
and there the moon-bird rests from his flight
to cool in the peppermint wind.

Let us leave this place where the smoke blows black and the dark street winds and bends.
Past the pits where the asphalt flowers grow
we shall walk with a walk that is measured and slow and watch where the chalk-white arrows go to the place where the sidewalk ends.

Yes we’ll walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
and we’ll go where the chalk-white arrows go,
for the children, they mark, and the children, they know,
the place where the sidewalk ends.

“I believe that we learn by practice. Whether it means to learn to dance by practicing dancing or to learn to live by practicing living, the principles are the same. In each, it is the performance of a dedicated precise set of acts, physical or intellectual, from which comes shape of achievement, a sense of one’s being, a satisfaction of spirit. One becomes, in some area, an athlete of God. Practice means to perform, over and over again in the face of all obstacles, some act of vision, of faith, of desire. Practice is a means of inviting the perfection desired.”

“Why do you go away? So that you can come back. So that you can see the place you came from with new eyes and extra colors. And the people there see you differently, too. Coming back to where you started is not the same as never leaving.”

As we go on, we remember
All the times we had together
And as our lives change, from whatever
We will still be, friends forever

SPECIAL THANKS FROM THE EDITOR TO . . .

OrangeZest 2015 contributors for sharing your photos.

Lisa Darling, project founder and advisor, for her patience, kindness, private laughs, and pull-no-punches feedback.

Gabe Montesanti ‘15 for her relentless hunt for photos, the eye rolls, private jokes, and sanity-generating pep talks.

Mallory Zink '15 for her balancing act as my odds-and-ends helper. Thank you for all the spell checking and ticklists and tedium, and for continuing, and finishing, this project with finesse without missing a beat.

Debbie Ball for giving me the private encouragement and project-managing suggestions that made this process less stressful and more zestful.

The Office of Alumni Relations, especially Christy Honsberger, Kerri Barker, Kim Aldrich, and Sass Havilar for their partnership and support of the OrangeZest project.

Lynnette Golnick, Jim Van Sweden ’73, and Jeff Palmer ’76. Thank you for the “good mornings” and the girl scout cookies and the color printing when our Epson was down. Even at 8 a.m. days you brought sunshine to my morning.

Many of the images in this book were collected by the OZ Photography Staff under the helm of Gabe Montesanti. Donna Aguilar ’15, Kendal Kurzeja ’16, Andrew Feeley ’16, Jessie Fales ’18, Tyler Fisher ’15, and Alex Ross ’17; Thank you for collecting the leaves to make this memory book. It is all the more colorful with your touch.
