I'd like to give a special thanks to Lisa Darling, Director of Publications, for her undying support not only with the creation of the 2011 OrangeZest Memory book, but throughout the last four years. Her passion and faith in everything she does is truly an inspiration.

Emily Finch ’17 for her patience and diligence through countless edits.

To the Office of Alumni Relations, especially Christy Honsberger and Kerri Baker, for their drive to make this year’s book meaningful for the graduating class of 2011.

Kate Yancho, Director of Student Involvement, for allowing access to the OSI archives and for working to help identify students.

Brian Dietz, Assistant Dean of Students, and Andrew Grayson, Admission Counselor, for their enthusiastic willingness to assist in identifying students.

Steve Wideen, Sports Information Director, for working with us to ensure student athletes were represented in the book.

Jory Horner, Director of Outdoor Programs and LandSea, for his wonderful submissions and for the time he took to help identify students.

And, finally, thanks to the Class Agents and Graduating Class of 2011 contributors who played a momentous part in this book by sharing their memories with us.

This book would not have been possible without these amazing efforts.
