HERBERT LEE STETSON
President

PRESIDENT'S GREETING

Every young man and woman who earnestly desires to get an education and will seriously use time and energy and opportunity for that purpose will receive a very cordial welcome at Kalamazoo College. This is the time when there is the greatest need for the best and ablest men and women to prepare for the most important work ever performed in the history of the world. At Kalamazoo College you will find every encouragement to do your best in whatever you attempt. We are here to aid as far as you will let us. Co-operation is the modern method for success in all enterprises that are of any importance. In education it is absolutely necessary to success.

Cordially,

H. L. STETSON,
President.

ENDOWMENT AND GIFT OF THE ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION.

To quote the Bulletin "The year has been of unusual interest and indicates plainly that our College is doing its part in the great work of reconstruction. The registration (315) was larger than ever before. The average scholarship of those remaining in College the entire year was unusually high, as is shown by the long list of degrees, prizes, and honors. Many academic honors were given by various institutions to graduate students from Kalamazoo College."

The Educational Fund is steadily trying to keep pace with the growth of the College. The report of the Treasurer given in June, 1921, gives the total assets of the College as $1,036,294.50. With this fund of a million dollars, the College has secured an allotment of another million from the Northern Baptist Convention to be used for new equipment, buildings, and further endowment for increased salaries. At the same time the Rockefeller Foundation has generously given the College $200,000 on condition that $400,000 more be raised and the total set aside for endowment to be used to increase the salaries of the professors. The Board of Trustees unanimously voted to comply with the conditions of this offer. In order to effect an immediate increase of salaries, the General Education Board has given the College $15,000 for 1920-21; $12,500 for 1921-22 and $10,000 for 1922-23.

At the last meeting of the Trustees, preliminary drawings were presented, showing what possibilities could be worked out with our present grounds, making some suggestions as to the location of dormitories administration buildings, and such other buildings as could be put up on the College grounds.

While they made no recommendations, their suggestions seemed to imply that our present site was far too small to expand; that we should look ahead, not merely for a few years, in the location and erection of buildings, but for many years to come. That many Colleges, in order to take care of 800 to 1000 students, were acquiring larger tracts of land, in some cases one hundred acres or more, and that the possibilities of Kalamazoo College would be much greater if there was more room in which to grow.

THE COLLEGE HISTORICAL.

The plan of establishing the Kalamazoo College or, "The Michigan and Huron Institute," as it was known in the beginning, originated with the Rev. Thomas W. Merrill, a graduate of Colby College. He worked and traveled continuously for several years to raise the necessary funds, and to obtain a charter. The Hon. Caleb Eldred and others were also actively interested in the foundation and organization of the College.

The original charter for the Institute was granted April 22, 1833. The following extract from this charter makes the character of the institution sufficiently evident. "Said trustees shall establish in said territory at such place as they may judge best a Literary Institute, to promote the knowledge of all those branches of education usually taught in academies and collegiate institutions."

In 1837 an unsuccessful attempt was made to obtain a regular college charter and the name was changed to "The Kalamazoo Literary Institute." In 1839 the Institute was merged with the "Branch" of the University of Michigan, but in 1845 the State withdrew its support.

In February, 1855, a college charter of liberal nature was granted by the legislature. By this instrument the Trustees are empowered to hold and administer the property of the College, to direct its policy, to elect its President and Faculty, and to confer degrees, "provided that the primary degrees shall not be conferred on any student who shall not have passed through a course of studies equivalent to, and as that prescribed by the Regents of the University of Michigan."

Women were granted equal privileges with men, so that Kalamazoo was one of the first co-educational colleges of America. In 1859, a seminary for young women organized and developed by Mrs. J. A. B. Stone, wife of the President of the College, was combined with the College. The original policy of having a theological seminary in connection with the College was abandoned early.

In 1835 the citizens of Kalamazoo contributed the sum of $2,500 to this institution, and a tract of land in what is now the heart of the resident section of the city. Temporary buildings were erected in 1836. This land was sold, and the men's dormitory was erected in 1848-50, on the present grounds of the College, in the western part of the city. The Baptists of the State, who had been from the first the principal supporters of the College, raised the necessary funds. Kalamazoo Hall was built in 1857 by the citizens of Kalamazoo. Ladies Hall, the women's dormitory and refectory, was built by the Ladies' Hall Association of the State and transferred to the College in 1887. Bowen Hall, named in recognition of the valued personal services and the great liberality of the late C. C. Bowen of Detroit, was dedicated in 1902. The Gymnasium was erected and the men's Dormitory remodeled in 1911.

The Men's Dormitory was partially destroyed by fire, March 17th; 1916. It was immediately rebuilt as a three story building, and was furnished and ready for use in July, 1916.

The Principals of the Institute were Nathaniel March, 1835., Walter Clark, 1835-1836; Nathaniel A. Balch, 1836-1838; David Allen, 1838-1840; William Dutton, 1840-1843, and J. A. B. Stone, 1843-1855.

The following men have served as Presidents of Kalamazoo College:

J. A. B. Stone, D.D., 1855-1863.
John M. Gregory, LL.D., 1864-1867.
Kendall Brooks, D.D., 1868-1887.
Monson A. Wilcox, D.D., 1887-1891.
Theodore Nelson, LL.D., 1891-1892.
Arthur G. Slocum, LL.D., 1892-1912.
Herbert L. Stetson, D.D., LL.D., Dean and acting President, 1911-1913. President, 1913.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Our Y. M. C. A. is a unit of the student department of the national organization. This national student body is the largest inter-collegiate organization in existence. The student department of the American National Young Men's Christian Association is affiliated with similar organizations of 40 other nations in a world-wide student federation. Thus, in joining our local Y. M. C. A., a student allies himself with the greatest student organization in the world with a membership of ten million.

Anyone may, at any time, become a member of this Association, if he can and does conscientiously endorse the "Central Objective." Briefly it is: "That we as college men may unite to prepare ourselves for effective moral and religious leadership. In short it, is the aim of the organization to supply the training necessary to so supplement the college curriculum that each individual may attain to his highest possible development.

One's education is not complete until he is trained and fitted to do his work effectively, whether it be mental, physical, or religious in character. Much of this preparation can be obtained only by co-operating with other men in the work of the Y. M. C. A.

There is no membership fee and no annual dues—support being entirely by voluntary subscription of faculty and students. Thus, our membership is within the reach of every man in school—and on an equal basis to all.

If you believe in the work that is being done—the "Central Objective," and what it may mean to you and others—won't you join us in this, the greatest of all work—that of character building among the men of Kalamazoo? We will welcome you and greatly appreciate any effort that you may put into Christian Leadership with us. There is nothing more honorable, more noble or more worthy of your time and thought.

The work of our Association is financed entirely by voluntary contributions from the students and faculty of our College. Every activity that is undertaken is free to every one. We do nothing from a strictly money basis. However, some money is necessary in an efficient and effective organization. So at various times during the year it is the desire of the Association to give every man in College a chance to help in this work.

As our organized groups are the basis of all our activities, they are used as a medium for personal work. Personal work is that activity through which men may be won to Christ and interested in a life of service for Him.

It is the purpose of the organization as a whole, to bring each man into a direct relation to Jesus Christ, and to eventually lead him to a decision for the Christian life. No man should consider his education complete who has not, among other things, learned to take Christ into every activity and to introduce Him to every one with whom he comes in contact.

It is the policy of the Social Committee to meet the needs of the social life of the student body in a way that is not met by any other organization. Social meetings and receptions are held from time to time during the year, giving the men an opportunity to meet one another on a basis of good fellowship.

Underlying all the work of the Y. M. C. A. is one fundamental purpose or objective; namely, the developing of Christian leadership. This is brought about:

First by serving the students at their point of need with a view of winning them to Christ. The first needs of a Freshman when he enters Kalamazoo are a place to eat, a place to live, and a job. The Association is prepared to help him in satisfying all three of those wants.

Second, the Y. M. C. A., stands for the best in college life; clean athletics, student honor, and proper social environment. Through these, Christian Manhood is developed.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y. W. C. A. in Kalamazoo College is the one organization on the campus which gives every girl an opportunity to be brought into active touch with every other girl in the institution and hence it is the aim of the Y to reach a hundred per cent membership. With this ambition behind it, the Y continues each year to gain in membership and improved programs, and every girl who boosts Y finds she is amply repaid in the benefit she may gain from the inspirational programs and the worthwhile friendships formed in the organization.

On every Tuesday afternoon the weekly program under the leadership of students or visiting speakers is held and from these meetings the girls go away with a clearer understanding of what is needed to fill their social and religious needs. Musical numbers and various original features characterize these programs and make them of vital interest.

Bible study classes under the able direction of some Christian member of the faculty, mission study classes, and eight weeks clubs are formed under the auspices of the association and the club activities in connection with the city association furnish opportunities for girls who are interested in work of associational nature.

Last, but not least, the social life of the Y is worthy of consideration. The annual Hare and Hound, the Y party for new girls, is one of the jolliest affairs of the year, and the big sister-college banquet given

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

The chief function of a college is to furnish leaders. In a Christian college like Kalamazoo, there should be a liberal proportion of religious leaders among the alumni. The records of the alumni of Kalamazoo college show how the institution has lived up to its responsibility in the past; the Christian organizations within the school indicate what it is doing now and will do in the future.

More than one hundred of the seven hundred living alumni are actively engaged in religious work. Twenty-seven of these are missionaries, distributed over the world till every corner is reached. We find the largest number in India where there are at least ten. Some are in China, others in Africa, Turkey, and the islands of the Pacific. Also there are some still studying in the United States, prior to going to the mission field.

There are almost a hundred ministers in the United States who are graduates of Kalamazoo College. Many of these are leading some of the largest Churches in the country. Kalamazoo College has reason to be proud of these men and women who are representing her in this way.

But what about the future? Will the college continue to furnish its share of religious leaders as it has in the past? The question is answered by the conditions within the college. A previous article in this booklet describes in general the religious life of the school; the student organizations for Christian service, the daily chapel service, and the campus spirit.

Our group of Volunteers is made up of students who have dedicated their lives to missionary service wherever it may lead them. Some are going out, simply as religious teachers, others are planning to study medicine or some such profession, and serve as specialists in certain kinds of mission work. The band is organized in order to conduct mission study classes and devotional meetings.

Outside of this group are others who are preparing themselves for the ministry at home.

The Student Volunteers, with these others who are going into Christian work in America, are the proof that Kalamazoo will live up to its obligations and responsibilities in the future as it has in the past.

ATHLETICS.

There is no feature of Kalamazoo College which does more to bind all the students and faculty together, and to inspire them with mutual interest than athletics. Greater enthusiasm and more intense college spirit is hard to find than that which prevails on the Orange and Black gridiron, court, diamond, and track. It is for these reasons that inter-collegiate athletics are given their proper and deserved place in our college life.

Few colleges of equal size have an athletic record which can compare with that of Kalamazoo. Not only do her teams meet competitors in the M. I. A. A., in which she has captured nearly every championship during the last few years, but representatives of old Kazoo invade larger institutions, such as the Michigan Agricultural College, Valparaiso University, University of Michigan, Notre Dame University, and Washington and Jefferson University. And it is only because of the good showing made by Kalamazoo against these teams that she is able to keep them on her schedule. It is the Kazoo "Fight 'em," "lick them at their best" spirit that is winning for Kalamazoo College.

Teams represent the College in football, basket ball, baseball, track, cross country, and tennis.

THE ANNUAL INTERSCHOLASTIC

The Kalamazoo College Annual Interscholastic has attracted state-wide interest and many of the best High School athletes in the state for five years. The entire day of the first Saturday in May is given over to these young men who come to our school to compete for substantial medals. They are individually cared for by the K. men while they are here, and the whole college turns out to make them welcome and extend to them an invitation to attend Kalamazoo College.

OUR COACH.

Ralph H. Young, physical director and coach of Kalamazoo College athletics, holds a high place in the esteem of every student. By his untiring efforts, his superior qualities of leadership and his remarkable ability in coaching all branches of athletics, he has repeatedly produced athletic machines which have won the admiration of all who stand for clean, worthy sportmanship, and he has done much in giving Kalamazoo an enviable record among Western Colleges. During his five years his teams have won thirteen M. I. A. A. championships, and tied for another, out of a possible fifteen. There is no more versatile and capable mentor in the West than Coach Young.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

LITERARY SOCIETIES

There are six active and flourishing literary societies among the students. The Sherwood Rhetorical Society, founded in 1851; The Philolexian Lyceum, founded in 1855; The Eurodelphian Society, founded in 1856; The Century Forum, founded in 1900; The Kappa Pi, founded in 1906; and the Alpha Sigma Delta, founded in 1920. The Eurodelphian, Kappa Pi and Alpha Sigma Delta societies are for young women, and the other three for young men.

Regular business and literary meetings are held each week. This literary work is a valuable adjunct to the regular college curriculum, and is actively encouraged by the faculty.

Open meetings, at which debates are held and literary programs presented are held from time to time. These meetings are open to the public.

STUDENT CLUBS.

The Dramatic Club is made up of students made up of students actively interested in public presentation of the classical and modern drama. One or more plays are presented each year by the club.

The Chemistry, Radio and Ad. Clubs are made up of students actively interested in Chemistry, Wireless Telegraphy, and Advertising, respectively. Each of these clubs hold regular meetings, at which papers of scientific and historical nature are presented.

The K. Club is composed of all present and former students who have received K's from the various athletic organizations of the College.

GLEE CLUBS.

The Glee Club aims to promote an interest in vocal and instrumental music among the young men of the institution. Concerts are given in various parts of the State, and a tour is taken during the Spring recess.

The Gaynor Club is open to young women only. Its aims and conditions for membership are similar to those of the Glee Club. It gives public concerts during the winter and spring.

ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION.

The Oratorical Association has for its purpose the promotion of an active interest in oratory and debating. During the first two semesters two public contests are held, the successful competitors in which represent the association in the annual contests of the Michigan Oratorical League. The association also has charge of the debating contests between Kalamazoo and other schools. Prizes are given to the winners in local contests in oratory, and a gold medal is awarded to each intercollegiate debater. All students are members and are encouraged to identify themselves with the activities of this organization.

PI KAPPA DELTA.

The Pi Kappa Delta is a national society, organized in 1913, with chapters in all the leading colleges and small universities in the middle west. The Kalamazoo College Chapter, which is the Alpha Michigan chapter, was organized in 1918.

This society chooses its members in recognition of forensic worth. Kalamazoo College's long and splendid record in debate and oratory, coupled with its high educational standard, gave the Orange and Black the best entrance qualifications.

Members of the Pi Kappa Delta wear the sign of a membership in the form of a key, awarded for work in both oratory and debate.

SUGGESTIONS.

Freshman year is not a period of triumph or reward, but of preparation. As such, it is the most important of the four. Study local conditions until you find along which lines your talents lie, then make the most of them.

Make sure of your curriculum work, for ineligibility will prevent you from serving the College actively. Do not however, become one-sided. Develop some serious interest outside your regular studies. You cannot acquire a well rounded education from books alone.

Do not scatter your endeavors. Participation in too many activities may prevent your efficiency in any. Look around carefully, find out what thing you can do best, and stick to it.

Pay for what you buy when you buy it. Attend all your class meetings.

Cutting without reason is the first step toward carelessness and ineligibility.

Do not read or sew in chapel.

Never "knock." The man who has the privilege, the man with the superior ability, usually keeps his destructive criticism to himself.

—Exchange

Subscribe for the "Index," the student paper; read it carefully. In this way you can become acquainted with the customs and tradition of the institution and both of these are vital elements to a student's success.

The "Boiling Pot," published annually by the Junior Class, is an interesting and useful part of the college man's library.

Remember that the purpose of a college education is to make a career that is worth while, and this calls for a well developed character.

Societies are good for some men and not so good for others. Before accepting more than one or two invitations to a society, look up its record and see whether it is such that you would care to join.

CHURCHES

First Baptist Church.....	Main and Church
First Meth. Episcopal.....	Rose and Lovell
First Presb. Church.....	Rose and South
St. Luke's Episcopal Church.....	Lovell St.
First Cong. Church.....	Academy and Park
Peoples Church (Liberal)---	Park and Lovell Sts.

All these churches extend a welcome to students and at least two of them provide in a special way with student classes in the Sunday School.

TRADITIONS.

The Senior Class sets aside a day in the Spring for wearing of the cap and gown.

Sometimes usually the first full week of the fall semester, occurs the tug-o'-war between the Sophomores and Freshman across Mirror Lake. In this one scrap, the new men are duly admitted into the masculine society of the College.

Early in the First semester, both the Sophomores and Freshman hold class parties, the dates being kept secret in so far as it is possible in order to assure the full attendance of all members.

The Football Banquet at the conclusion of the football season (at which the letters are given out) and the Washington Banquet, February 22 are annual affairs to which alumni and friends are invited.

There is an Annual all-College picnic sometime in May which everybody attends.

A time-honored tradition is that no student shall smoke on the Campus.
