

Dear Sir

London

In reply to yours of the 13th inst.

I have conditionally
pledged the use of my Scholarship to a young man (coloured) by the name of Martin who is presently a M. D. in Toronto & who has proposed his desires to me to obtain education with a view of going to Africa as a letter to him to write to but know nothing further I Dunham the widow of Dr. E. S. says that you allude to may have the benefit of that scholarship if no one else is using it If Keelin does not use mine then you speak

of can have it
- your sincerely

John Wood
