Message to Note

We are pleased to report a large alumni crowd for Homecoming, a winning game with Adrian (28-0), and a packed alumni open house at the Kalamazoo Country Club! Chief business of our Alumni Council meeting on Homecoming morning was the adoption of the new Alumni Association Constitution. Ballots returned by alumni-at-large reported full approval.

Our guest registration of returning football lettermen included Edward Woodhams '00, the earliest football player present, Grove Kimmerle, '06, Bill Buchanan '14, Jack Kless '30, Arthur Lewis '30, Charles Blandon, '33, Lisle MacKay '22, Roger Kooi '64, Phil Perry '58, Duane Kress '34, Sidney Katz '37, Forrest Sromme '20, Jack Kuitert '29, Frank Otten '36, Tom Hayward '64, Larry Tucker '34, Terry Highfield '52, Jack Bowen '55, Harry Rapley '38, Doug Braham '42, Bob Simanton '51, Carl Bekofski '54, Ray Cramer '63, Bob Copeland '55, Dick Walker '41, Gerry Gilman '42, Bill Liggert '61, George Macleod '60, Charles Morello '55, Ken Simpson '49, Jim Stoff '53, Dave Sturt '56, Bruce Mason '46, Sam Harrington '57, Vern Mero '54, Ed Lauerman '64, Carson Neff '34, Don Steffen '59, Jon Labahn '61, Angie Vlachos '56, Fred LaCrone '27, Ron Milligan '69, and Al VanZoeren '23.

Bill Buchanan '14 tells, "In the fall of 1905, Augusta High School had quite a football team. On it were Bill Scougale who later played halfback for Western Michigan, Edgar Roper who later played football at Western Michigan and was captain of the football team, Clinton Case — K' College but never made a letter, James D. Buchanan — K' College '06, John Buchanan — K' College '12, and Bill Buchanan '09, '11, '12, and '13. We had Allen Giddings whose home was Augusta — K' College '03, '04 — as our coach. Western Michigan, young at that time, scheduled a game with us which was played in Augusta. It was agreed that Coach Giddings could play with us, and do you know what? We took those Western Michigan boys 13 to 0. We had a hot day — also some good football players."

Alumni President

Paul H. Todd, a member of the class of 1909 and a trustee of Kalamazoo College since 1924, died on September 3. At 81, he was fully active in his business activities; he was founder, president and general manager of Farmers' Chemical Company in Kalamazoo. He was a 26-year member of the Kalamazoo City Commission and was twice mayor of Kalamazoo. Mr. Todd was president of Mentha Plantation, Inc., a director of the Kalamazoo Spice Extraction Co. and the National Bank and Trust Co. of Kalamazoo; former chairman of the board of Abacus Fund, Inc., a past member of the Michigan Economic Development Commission; and charter member of the 52-year-old Kalamazoo Kiwanis Club. He was affiliated with the American Chemical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Pharmaceutical Association, the Marshall Chess Club in New York City and the New York City Chemist Club. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Dewing Todd; two sons, Paul, Jr. '52 and Thomas '53; a sister, Ethel Todd Woodhams '07; and four grandchildren.

Michael J. Waskowsky, head of the Kalamazoo College art department for twenty years, died suddenly on September 6, at the age of 51. He received his BFA from the Art Institute of Chicago following which he was a Fellow at Cranbrook Academy of Art; he received the MA degree from the University of Chicago in 1948. His work is in several collections including the Cranbrook Museum and the VauSHAIR Galleries in New York City. Among his commissions were the St. C. Church Icons of the Greek Orthodox Church in Chicago. He was a member of the Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences in America; the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters; the College Art Association; and the Midwest Art Conference. His most recent research was on Far Eastern art for which he received a study grant in 1967 from the GLCA. He had spent the fall and winter of 1968 on sabbatical leave, continuing his study of oriental art and Buddhism, and pursuing his painting and sculpturing. He is survived by his wife, Harriett; two sons, Gregory and Nicolaus; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Waskowsky, Island Lake, Ill.; and a sister, Mrs. Ludmilla Angleton, Chicago.

Louis W. Sutherland, who first joined the Kalamazoo College Board of Trustees in 1926, died on October 17 at the age of 86. He founded the Kalamazoo Label Company and headed the Sutherland Paper Company for nearly half a century. (In its day, Sutherland was one of the largest paper making firms in the country and the largest employer and taxpayer in Kalamazoo.) He retired as chairman of the board and chief executive officer in 1958. He was elected, successively, as Kalamazoo alderman, city commissioner, and mayor. He served as director of the American National Bank, the Kalamazoo Building Corporation, the Clarege Fan Company, and the National Folding Box Association; president of the Columbia Hotel Corporation; and member of the Municipal Airport Advisory Board. He received the honorary doctor of laws degree from Kalamazoo College in 1944. He is survived by his wife, Agnes Rasmussen Sutherland; one son, Louis W., Jr. '39; one daughter, Mrs. William Race '50; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. O. F. Miller.

Family and friends have made gifts to Kalamazoo College in the names of these three devoted members of the College community.

Fall Enrollment

Kalamazoo College began the fall with an enrollment of 1337. Of this number, 217 are abroad in foreign study—the largest group to participate. In addition to this off-campus contingent, half of the senior class is away on independent study projects.

The freshman class totals 404. This number includes 17 alumni children, 7 alumni grandchildren and 12 others who have alumni brothers and sisters. Alumni children are Christina Koestner (Robert Koestner '36); Alan Howell (Joseph Howell '49, Virginia Hope Howell '18); Julia Bierema (Everett and Doris Daub Bierema '51); Susan Gardener (Phyllis Himebaugh Gardener '48); Linda Giering (Lois Sikkema Mead '45 and the late Charles N. Giering '45); Mallory Simpson (M. Kendall and Jean Richards Simpson '49); Susan VanDyke (Henry VanDyke '45); Janice Williams (George '41 and Mary Hosford Williams '43, the late Maynard Owen Williams '10); Jonathan Becker (Russell and Dorothy Kleith Becker '44); Scott Bowman (Bruce and Florence Chisholm Bowman '49, Winifred Merritt Bowman '26, the late Helen Fletcher Chisholm '09, the late Walter Merritt '85); James Ferrara (B. Joseph Ferrara '52); Ralph Howard (R. Bowen Howard '40, Jessie Hayne Howard '56 and the late Ralph B. Howard '06); Stephen Maunder (Robert and Margaret McCrimmon Maunder '41); Christopher Stewart (Robert Stewart III '44); Peter Strong (Laurence Strong '36); Thomas Braham (Douglas Braham '42); William Culver (William Culver '42); Judith Gillespie (Robert Gillespie '39). Additional alumni grandchildren: Maiya Malmborg (the late Alexander Malmborg '24); Constance McGuire (the late Louis McGuire '18); Duane Harrison (Glady's Pheteplace Davidson '16). Alumni brothers and sisters: Liv Anne Bjornard, Judith Gillespie, Lynne Jackson, Sally Madsen, Sarah Porter, James Booth, William Klein, Kevin LeDuc, Lee Mason, Dale Morton, Richard Shepard, and Roger Tolle.

During the October 15th Vietnam Moratorium, there was a teach-in for students and faculty; several hundred Kalamazoo College students joined WMU and Nazareth students in Bronson Park for a Peace Rally; and a collection booth on the downtown mall (above) was sponsored by "K" students to raise money for the American Friends Service Committee to support the South Vietnamese war orphans program.

In cross country, Kalamazoo won the 1968 MIAA championship with fine team balance. In 1969, the Hornets weren't a team title contender, as they won only one MIAA dual meet, but they did have the MIAA's outstanding individual runner in senior John Wismer. Wismer was unbeaten in MIAA dual meet competition for the 1969 season. A native of St. Joseph, Wismer has been an outstanding performer for four seasons and is probably the best all-around cross country runner in Kalamazoo's history. He was the MIAA's most valuable runner in 1967, and was second to Rick Bruggers of Hope in 1968.

Kalamazoo College's 1969 football team surprised the coaches of the other MIAA teams by finishing in third place in the final league standings. The Hornets scored impressive victories over Hope, 31-0, over Adrian, 28-0, and over Olivet, 57-3, and lost to champion Albion, 28-3, and to runner-up Alma, 21-0.

Prior to the start of the season, the coaches of the six MIAA teams had conducted a poll on the probable finish of the 1969 title chase. Kalamazoo coach Ed Baker figured that the Hornets might spring some real surprises, but the other coaches labelled Kalamazoo as the probable occupant of the league cellar. The three lopsided league victories proved that the coaches were poor prophets.

As a matter of fact, the same poll indicated that Alma would be an overwhelming favorite to win its third straight championship. But the alleged experts were wrong on that prediction, too, as Albion scored a 7-3 victory over a fumbling Alma team and thereby wrested the title away from the Scots.

Kalamazoo had non-league games remaining after the close of the MIAA season. While non-league wins are always important to a team's record, the most important accomplishment was the first-division finish in the MIAA race. Kalamazoo had the fewest football candidates of any team in the league, but the Hornets gained extra mileage from several talented performers as they posted a winning MIAA record.

The Hornets' first Homecoming TD in the 28-0 win over Adrian. DeMonte Johnson (22) forces way past Adrian defender Mike Adler (54) on way to Kalamazoo College's first touchdown. John Seniura (68) leads interference on four-yard scoring run.
