Top Critics All Agree
Tureck is Tops!

"An artist of the first rank" — Chicago Sun.

"Her playing of Bach is incredibly vivid. Miss Tureck is invigorating; she is interesting; she is somebody, — an artist any country might well be proud of."
— Virgil Thomson, N. Y. Herald-Tribune

"The listener had the illusion of listening to Bach himself."
— Olin Downes, N. Y. Times

MISS TURECK is currently presenting a series of three all-Bach programs at Town Hall, New York, receiving rave notices.

TOWER MUSIC
Bach chorales will be broadcast from the tower of Stetson Chapel over the Kirby Memorial Amplification System for twenty minutes preceding each performance.

1750 — Bach died
1950 — Bach lives

Magnificent and Inspiring!
The consummate expression of the common Christian faith

THE MASS IN B-MINOR
Bach's greatest choral work
Unabridged — First performance in Kalamazoo

Kalamazoo, Mich.
MARY MARTING, Soprano, sang with us at our first Festival in the “St. Matthew Passion.” She has the voice, the vocal ability and the artistry to make her Bach live and vital.

HELENE HEKMAN, Contralto, well-known as an oratorio specialist in the Chicago area. Numerous repeat engagements testify to her popularity. A personality of rare charm.

RALPH NIELSEN, Tenor, a magnificent lyric voice, coupled with fine musicianship. His rise to stardom in the past few years has been rapid and exciting.

NELSON LEONARD, Bass-baritone. Dr. Nelson’s warm, sympathetic interpretations of Bach have endeared him to our Kalamazoo audiences. We welcome the opportunity to hear him again.
