1955 PRESS REVIEWS
“A triumphant presentation of a most difficult work.” (The St. Matthew Passion)

THE AUDIENCES: “The listeners found warmth and brightness, lightness of heart, devotional intensity and sheer melody in Bach’s music. The applause had that quick, sharp note which always bespeaks genuine pleasure and approval.”

THE DIRECTOR: “Dynamic leadership... His nine years of work (in Bach) have been of inestimable value... It seems that a lot of people who didn’t like Bach, now do, to their delight... That’s everybody’s gain and a tribute to Mr. Overley and the people who have so faithfully supported him.” — R. A. Patton in the Kalamazoo Gazette
