

Release date: IMMEDIATE
Nickerson Miles

KALAMAZOO, March 30---The Board of Directors of the F. W. Heyl and Elsie L. Heyl Science Scholarship Fund has named eight 1975 winners of full tuition scholarships to Kalamazoo College, The Bronson Methodist Hospital School of Nursing, and Yale University. All are from the Kalamazoo area.

Receiving a full fellowship to Yale is senior Regina Schnabel, a chemistry major who has consistently been named to the Dean's List of Kalamazoo College and who has studied chemistry in such places as Jülich, Germany, and the National Institutes of Health in Washington, D. C. Schnabel is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, the national women's honor society, and received the Todd Chemistry Prize her freshman year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Schnabel of 6538 Westchester in Portage.

Named alternates for the Yale fellowship are: Lester Fahrner, Michael Rosenberg, and Gerald Magneson.

Of the other scholarship winners, one is a student at the Bronson School of Nursing, two are incoming students there, and four will be freshmen at Kalamazoo College.

Named Heyl Scholar at Bronson for the 1975-76 academic year is Mrs. Susan Hefner, a junior, who lives at 6520 Portage Road. Incoming award winners include Joanne Beeke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beeke of 2815 Lowell St., and Alice Moerdyk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garret J. Moerdyk of 1104 Roseland Ave. Both are students at Loy Norrix High School. Alternates are Tobi Sandlin and Linda Jenkins.

Heyl Science Scholarship winners - add 2-2-2

Scholarships to Kalamazoo College to major in the exact sciences have been awarded to Thomas Blok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Blok of 1304 Sheridan Drive; Lisa Nagler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Nagler of 2439 Parkwyn Drive; David Dame, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dame of 1201 Cherry St.; and Richard Haw, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Haw, 2832 Briarwood. Blok and Nagler are students at Loy Norrix, while Dame and Haw attend Kalamazoo Central. Alternates named include: Eric Bouwens, David Larkin, Henry Clarke, and Elizabeth Milne.

The Heyl Scholarship Fund was established through the will of the late Dr. Heyl, a former Upjohn Company vice-president and director of research. From 1923 until his retirement, he was the director of the Upjohn Scholars Program at the College, and encouraged many of the College's graduates to go on for graduate work at Yale.

The scholarships are renewable so long as the recipient maintains a good academic record and continues to major in the sciences.

A reception for the 1975 Heyl Fellow-Scholars is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 22, 1975 in the reception lounge in the Hicks Center.