For the Class of 2021
Kalamazoo College Class of 2021:

It might hard to imagine that back in 2017 you embarked on a journey that brought you together from across the globe. Carrying with you your own passions, views and skills you have truly made a lasting impact on this campus. In the last four years you have not only grown together as scholars, leaders and activists; but been able to do so through a global pandemic. I hope as you look through OrangeZest, you are able to remember the memories, friends and experiences you have had at K, both in person and remotely.

Now that your time at Kalamazoo College has come to an end, it’s time to celebrate your accomplishments and reflect on your achievements. I hope that OrangeZest helps bring to mind the benefits of this wonderful, crazy journey in making the family and home you will always have at K.

From the bottom of my heart, I hope the last four years was a motivating, inspiring, and life-changing experience.

Congratulations, Class of 2021! Lux Esto!

Special Thanks to...

The Kalamazoo College Class of 2021: For submitting pictures and helping with identifying your fellow classmates, without you this book would not have been possible.

The Office of Alumni Engagement: Kim Aldrich ’80, Kerri Barker, Audrey Bitzer, Christy Honsberger; For providing access to commencement photos and the alumni registry for the Class of 2021

Kalamazoo College Marketing and Communication: Sarah Frink, Andy Brown, Allison Zorbo, Craig Simpson, Lynnette Pryor, Dawne Beougher; for giving me permission to use the College’s Branding, and giving me access to the College’s photography archives, this publication would not have been possible.

Steve Widden in Athletics: for giving me access to the Athletic Departments photo archives and providing me with rosters of seniors.

Craig Simpson: For helping me greatly through the process of creating a publication tied to the College and answering any questions I had throughout this process.

Lisa Murphy ’98 in Archives: For giving me information and greatly helpful insights in the history and importance of yearbooks and OrangeZest during my time at Kalamazoo College.

Professor Lanny Pots: For being my SIP advisor, allowing me to do a non-departmental SIP, and enabling me to reintroduce OrangeZest, this book truly would not have been possible.

Dr. Anne Fraser (Biology Department) for providing photos of SIP presentations, these photos greatly helped me in capturing the Class of 2021’s Senior year.

Kimberly Moss, whom through the Athletic Department provided headshots and action shots of athletic teams.
