LUX ESTO

APRIL 1833

The College Mace

The tradition of having a mace carried by the first person in an academic procession dates from the earliest days of the cathedral schools of Bologna, Paris and Oxford. The mace used in formal academic processions at Kalamazoo College has a unique history. For Christmas of 1859, the College's students presented a gold-tipped walking stick to the institution's first president, Dr. James Andrus Blinn Stone. Dr. Stone's great-grandson, Webster J. Jones, presented the walking stick to the College in 1986. It has become a tradition at Kalamazoo College for the Stone walking stick to be carried by the chief faculty marshal who precedes the president of the College in academic processions. The tradition serves as a formal reminder of the forward thinking, courage, scholarship and community involvement that have characterized the College since its founding.

Processional/Recessional

At the beginning of the graduation ceremony Kalamazoo College faculty members proceed through two lines of graduating seniors. At the end of the ceremony the seniors recess through two lines of the faculty. It is a tradition of recognition and honor, student to teacher, teacher to student, at an institution where all are lifelong learners. Alumni family members of graduating seniors will join the faculty lines in the recessional to congratulate and welcome the most recent graduates into the Alumni Association.

Kalamazoo Alma Mater

Words by R.F. Holden, Class of 1907

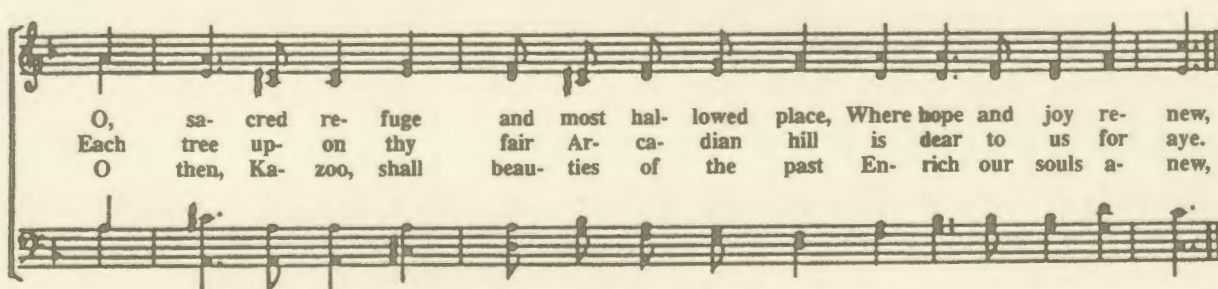

Music by W.F. Dunbar, Class of 1924

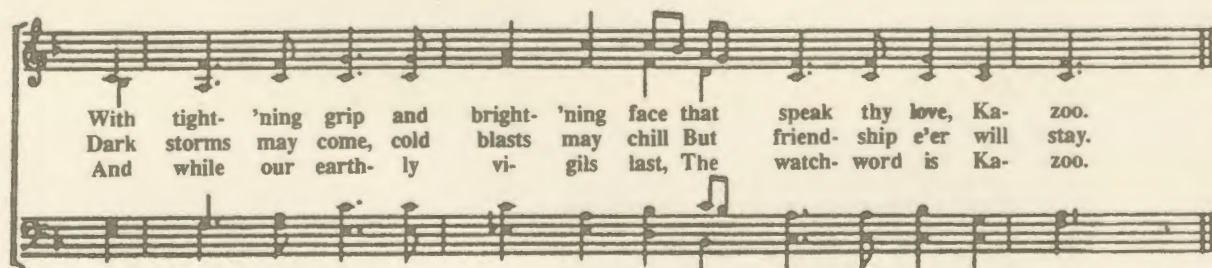

1. O, Kalamazoo, our faithful friend, We offer thee a song,
2. When these dear scenes are left behind No fortune can subdue
3. When age has decked our heads with white And youth has ceased to glow,

To praise the home where friendships blend And weld so true and strong.
The chords of love that closely bind Our hearts to thee, Kalamazoo.
We'll revel in one sweet delight The times of long ago.

O, sacred refuge and most hallowed place, Where hope and joy renew,
Each tree upon thy fair Arcadian hill is dear to us for aye.
O then, Kalamazoo, shall beauties of the past Enrich our souls anew,

With tightening grip and brightening face that speak thy love, Kalamazoo.
Dark storms may come, cold blasts may chill But friendship e'er will stay.
And while our earthly vigils last, The watchword is Kalamazoo.
