Mixed Company Presents A Shakespeare Sampler

Michigan theatre veterans Linda Starkweather and Chuck Bentley present their Shakespeare sampler appropriately called Mixed Company.

Inspired by Linda's training with the well respected Shakespeare & Company, and Chuck's longstanding commitment to Shakespeare's works through his productions in film and theatre, this action-packed theatrical adventure will capture the interest of even the most 'Shakespeare phobic' play-goer.

You'll see the most volatile, violent, funny, touching and romantic scenes between Shakespeare's men and women. Kate & Petruchio, Rosalinde & Orlando, Richard III & Elizabeth, Viola & Orsino, the Dauphin & Joan of Arc, among others, will be making appearances during this parade of murderers, monarchs, mistresses and maids.

The scenes are woven together with history, interesting, funny, and little known anecdotes about the life and times of William Shakespeare. More fun than scholarly, this show is even for people who think they hate Shakespeare.

Stunning period costumes, authentic music and dance and cleverly staged sword play and fight work create a unique and unforgettable encounter with the Bard himself.
