ADDRESS: The Shining Mountain
J. MACE CRANDALL, '26
Chaplain, USNR

ANTHEM: Let Saints on Earth in Concert Sing . . . Butcher

Let saints on earth in concert sing
With those whose work is done;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heav'n are one.

One family we dwell in Him,
One Church, above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;
Part of His host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

E'en now to their eternal home
There pass some spirits blest
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.

Jesu, be Thou our constant guide,
Then when the word is giv'n,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heav'n.

COLLEGE HYMN: Number 85, stanzas 1, 4, 5 . . . TAYLOR

Lord of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.

Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame. AMEN

MEMORIAL SERVICE: ROBERT D. DEWEY, '47
Former Chaplain's Assistant

ANTHEM: My God and I (Latvian Folk-song) . . . SERGEI
(By request)

My God and I go in the field together,
We walk and talk as good friends should and do,
We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter,
My God and I walk through the meadow's hue.

He tells me of the years that went before me,
When heavenly plans were made for me to be,
When all was but a dream of dim conception,
To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.

My God and I will go for aye together,
We'll walk and talk and jest as good friends do.
This earth will pass and with it common trifles,
But God and I will go unendingly.
